

You're invited

Taxes, Tariffs and Trade

Please join BMO Harris Bank, Columbus 2020 and Ohio SBDC for a panel discussion on the latest updates on taxes, cross-border tariffs and trade. Learn from tax and legal experts and hear business leader perspectives on how these changes may affect you and how to help manage the risks to your business.

Taxes, Tariffs and Trade Panel Discussion

Tuesday, August 28, 2018

4:00–4:30 p.m. Registration and Networking
4:30–5:30 p.m. Panel Discussion
5:45–6:45 p.m. Networking and Light Appetizers

CBRE, 200 Civic Center Drive, 14th Floor, Columbus, OH 43215

Parking is available at Lazarus Garage, 232 S Front Street, or surrounding street parking.

RSVP NOW

RSVP by Thursday, August 23, 2018 to Chip Holcombe at Columbus 2020 at ch@columbusregion.com

Moderator

Nick Fortine
Market president
and publisher,
*Columbus
Business First*

Panelists

Susan Reese
Plante Moran
CPA and Partner

Susan has more than 30 years' experience advising domestic and internationally active businesses in the manufacturing and services industries. Susan's specialty is helping clients maneuver through complex domestic and cross-border tax laws, develop practical and valuable tax solutions, and assist with international ownership structuring to help their businesses thrive.

Daniel D. Ujcz
Dickinson Wright
Practice Group Chair,
International & Regional Practices

Dan is an international trade and customs lawyer who specializes in Canada-United States matters. Dan also provides public policy counsel to governmental officials and corporate leaders in areas of regulatory cooperation, border security, economic development, labor mobility, corporate social responsibility, and public-private-partnerships.

(Additional panelists to be announced.)